

Southwest Washington
Friends of Baseball 2005 membership applications will be available next month on our webpage www.swwbaseball.org

SW Washington Friends of Baseball donate $1,000 to assist the YES! Greater Clark for Parks! Campaign to obtain voter approval to create a Metropolitan Park District to maintain parks in the unincorporated urban area (UUA) surrounding Vancouver. Capital dollars are already available for development of 37 park sites that will include several sports fields.

PLEASE VOTE "YES" in FEBRUARY FOR
THE METROPOLITAN PARK DISTRICT.

For additional information – see attached Metropolitan Park District FACT SHEET or contact:

Stephen Duh, Planner
Vancouver-Clark Parks & Recreation 360 / 619-1115
or email:
Stephen.Duh@ci.vancouver.wa.us

Goals of Southwest Washington Friends of Baseball

- Bring major league baseball to Portland.
- Bring to Vancouver a short-season Class A team.
- Support youth baseball and softball in Clark County.

Vol. 2

October 2004

The Box Score

Friends of Baseball sponsor local coach for the Ripken Baseball Coaches' Clinic

Skyview High School's baseball coach, Eric Estes will be attending this year's Ripken Baseball Coaches' Clinic at the Nike World Headquarters on Saturday, October 23. Coach Estes will be representing Skyview High School and SW Washington Friends of Baseball at this year's clinic featuring Cal Ripken, Jr., Bill Ripken and John Habyan "A combined 45 years of baseball knowledge and experience"

If interested in participating contact Ripken Baseball at 1-800-486-0850
or check their webpage www.ripkenbaseball.com

Have you picked up your
Southwest Washington
Friends of Baseball hat!

Just take the coupon you received with your membership to Athlete's Corner in Hazel Dell or Cascade Park.

Forward this newsletter to your family and friends so they can become a member of SWFB – it's very easy. Click on www.swwbaseball.org and fill out the form, or call Arch Miller, President at 992-4324.